

Olbrich Botanical Gardens

2017 GMWP Summer Writing Events

writers can expect to :

Meet young writers from the Madison area and share writing with them each day during 'Author's Chair.'

Write daily in a beautiful environment, using the gardens as inspiration for writing.

Contribute a piece of writing to be published in an anthology. Everyone will receive a copy!

Meet guest writers from the Madison area.

Write in a supportive environment, led by a staff of Greater Madison Writing Project Fellow and experienced teachers of writing whose goal is to inspire and support writers of all abilities.

Engage in the writing process, (generating ideas, drafting, revising, editing and publishing) while exploring a variety of genres, including poetry, creative nonfiction, personal narratives, and short stories.

Learn new techniques and ways to respond to writing through peer review and writing groups.

Young Writers Camps:

Camp One: June 26-29

Camp Two: August 8-11

Camp Three: August 14-17

For students grades

3-8

Visit go.wisc.edu/9f0ckd for more information!

High School Writing Camp

All Campers: August 8-11

For students grades

9-12

