Don't miss out on your chance to:

Learn from experienced classroom teachers who have implemented successful writing practices in their classrooms.

Acquire research based and classroom applicable strategies and practices. Workshops explore, "how to" questions as well as "why?"

Connect and collaborate with other area educators also invested in creating writing rich classroom environments.

Each Saturday, participants will come together for a write-in, then choose two interactive workshops. Workshop topics will include:

- Engagement
- Writing as a Process
- Assessment, Feedback, and Grading
- Digital Literacy
- Project Based Learning
- Teachers as Writers
- Reflection
- Disciplinary Literacy
- Writing as Thinking
