

NWA Administrators' Retreat Writing for the Common Core

Improving Instruction for CCSS Argument Writing

June 10, 2015

This full-day retreat at the Pinnacle One Building in Rogers, sponsored by the Northwest Arkansas Writing Project, will build your capacity as an instructional leader. Learn more about the CCSS Argument Writing Standards and instruction that leads to improved student writing and better PARCC performance. NWA Writing Project Teacher Consultants (K-12) and University of Arkansas faculty will facilitate a collaborative learning experience that includes reading, writing, and redesigning writing instruction for your school or district.

About us

For over 20 years, Northwest Arkansas Writing Project has focused on improving writing in our schools. As one of 200 National Writing Project sites, we provide high-quality professional development for educators and directly reach young writers through our Kidswrite and Teenswrite summer camps.

Retreat Fees:

Retreat fees include full-day workshop (8:30 am - 3:30 pm), book, supplies, and light snacks. Lodging and meals are available at nearby venues.*
Register at: tinyurl.com/NWA-Administrator-Retreat. Payment should be sent to: "University of Arkansas," Conference Services Registrar, RCED 143, 1 University of Arkansas, Fayetteville, AR 72701. PO option available.

Full-Day Retreat: $85

Offering administrators the opportunity to think, read, and write together

Retreat location:

U of A Global Campus in Suite 402, Pinnacle One Building (3300 Market Street, Rogers, Arkansas 72758). The retreat is conveniently located in the Shoppes at Pinnacle Hills, I-49 at Exit 83 across from the Embassy Suites Hotel.

*Dining and shopping directories at pinnaclehills.com & pinnaclehillspromenade.com

Contact us

Email: collet@uark.edu | <http://nwawp.org/>